Mr. dear Mr Lomax

I am sorry to trouble you again for two or three Life Certificates for I have run out. Among your legal acquaintances have you met with any one inclined to think favorably of my Chancery Claim. Perhaps you remember this subject again, and remember that poor people importunate are generally troublesome.

With our Kindest remembrances to all your family, and trusting that the New Year may be one of happiness and prosperity to you

Believe me to remain
Yours most sincerely
J Ruiz de Lihory
